The election to be held on Thursday, August 7th, 1873.

WE HAVE received No. 4, of Our Living and our Dead which is unusually interesting in this locality, as it publishes copies of many of the dispatches from different gentlemen of this city to Gov. Ellis in 1861. We observe also in the same number, a copy of "Lincoln's Proclamation," and also a copy of "President Davis' Proclamation." This may have been accidental, but if intentional, is in rather poor taste according to our notion. We have no objection to the term "President Davis" if the editor chooses to use it, but "Lincoln" was a President also and should be mentioned accordingly.

OUR readers are pretty familiar with the proposed amendments to the Constitution, and we believe the Republicans generally will vote against them. We shall, however, from day to day give our ideas about them, and show why we are opposed to them.

In a former issue we called attention to a communication in regard to the necessity of an enumeration of the inhabitants of the State in 1875. If this section 5 of article II is amended, the State will remain in its present unjust Senatorial apportionment until the year 1882 at least, and that is the reason the amendment is proposed. The pious talk of an unnecessary expense is simply gammon. The design is to control the Senate beyond peradventure. The following is the article as it now stands:

Sec. 5. An enumeration of the inhabitants of the State shall be taken under the direction of the General Assembly in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, and at the end of every ten years thereafter; and the said Senate Districts shall be so altered by the General Assembly, after the first session after the return of every enumeration taken as aforesaid, or by order of Congress, that each Senate District shall contain, as nearly as may be, an equal number of inhabitants, excluding aliens and Indians not taxed, and shall remain unaltered until the return of another enumeration, and shall at all times consist of contiguous territory; and no county shall be divided in the formation of a Senate District, unless such county shall be equitably entitled to two or more Senators.

It will be observed that the text reads "an enumeration of the inhabitants of the State," which is a very different thing from a census. It merely requires a list of the inhabitants, which can be obtained at a comparatively trifling cost. One of our city dailies stated a few days ago its belief that our city had been improperly reported in the census, and showed that an enumeration of the inhabitants could be very speedily made at a trifling cost, and advocated it. Now suppose five competent men be selected, and the county divided into five districts, could it not all be done in twenty days? Suppose these men were paid three dollars per day, that would make the enumeration cost this county the enormous sum of three hundred dollars! And this is one of the largest counties in the State. Taking this as a basis, the cost to the State, including blanks and instructions—which by the way would be very few, as nothing but an enumeration would be required—it could not possibly cost to exceed twenty thousand dollars, and it should be done for much less.

We are of the opinion that this enumeration is of much greater importance to the State than the impeachment of Gov. Holden, which was done under Democratic auspices, and at a greater expense. The question should be thoroughly understood by the people, that they may see the animus of this proposed amendment. It shows also the smartness of the opposition. Watchful and untiring, it behooves us, as we said before, if for no other reason, to vote against them on general principles.

Obituary.

Our readers may remember M. W. Churchill, Esq., who was, a few years ago, connected with the Purcell House of this city. It becomes our sad duty to record his death, which occurred in Raleigh last Friday morning at 1 o'clock.

Mr. Churchill has been in delicate health for some time, and his friends have seen his gradual failing day by day until death put an end to his suffering.

The Raleigh News makes the following kindly mention of our friend:

Mr. Churchill was a native of New York State and came to this city in 1868. He become the financial manager and news editor of the Daily Standard, which was at that time under the proprietorship of J. B. Neathery & Co. The press of the State will remember the spicy State column of the Standard under Mr. Churchill's administration. He was a forcible and humorous paragraphist exceedingly courteous and respectful to his brethren of the press, and during his editorial career was decidedly popular with the craft.

In 1871, he was elected a member of the Board of City Commissioners from the Middle Ward, which cast a Democratic majority of about 40. Though a mild Republican, such was his popularity that he carried many Democratic votes which elected him. He was appointed by the Board a member of the Street Committee in 1871 and was the most efficient member of that Committee. He was re-elected in 1872 under the same circumstances to the same position. He was then chosen by the Board as City Treasurer, the most important office of the City Government. The finances of the City were in a dreadful condition; the interest on the public debt became due, and no funds to meet it. By his superior financial ability he succeeded in making the payment, and made other satisfactory adjustments of the debt as greatly to improve the City credit. His exhibit of the City finances, published in the News a few weeks ago, which he rendered at the time of his resignation, speaks for itself of his efficiency as an officer and his devotion to the people he represented.

He was united in marriage to Miss Cornelia Rutjes, daughter of A. J. Rutjes, Esq., in 1870, who survives him and now mourns the irreparable loss of a fond, loving and indulgent husband.

During his late sickness Mr. Churchill was visited night and day by our citizens generally, but the Odd Fellow fraternity especially, of which Order he was a prominent member, having filled the highest offices of the Lodge with which he was connected.

In the death of Mr. Churchill the City of Raleigh loses one of its best and most progressive citizens. Peace to his ashes.

EDITORIAL BUDGET.

— President Salmeron has issued a proclamation calling 80,000 men of the reserves into active service against the insurrectionists in the country.

— Fifty persons who participated in the beer riots in Frankfort some months ago have been convicted and sent to prison for terms ranging from nine months to four years.

— The gendarmie of Barcelona which left to join the Carlists, reconsidered their determination and returned to their allegiance to the Republic amid the enthusiasm of the populace. Only their colonel and his son went over to the insurgents.

— The Germans have liberated the crew of the Vigilante for fear the German consul and his family at Carthagenia would be shot. The insurgents have promised to delay the seizure of the German vessels in port three days so that their commanders may have time to telegraph for and receive instructions from Berlin.

— It is reported that General Contreras, the leader of the revolt in Cartagena, is marching on Madrid with 6,000 men, having left a force equally as strong at Cartagena. It is also said he has sent the frigate Almanza to Malaga, and the steamer Fernando el Colelico to Torreviega, with instructions to the commanders to levy contributions upon the inhabitants of those cities. The president of the Committee of Public Safety in Madrid has fled from the city.

— The Russian Government has received a dispatch from General Kaufman announcing that the treaty between Russia and Khiva has been signed. The Khan promises to pay to Russia 2,000,000 roubles and abolish capital punishment in his dominions. In return for this, Russia guarantees the independence of Khanate. The Czar's troops will occupy Khiva until the war indemnity is paid. Portion of territory of Khanate is to be given to Bakhara for assistance rendered to the Russian troops.

In a round-about way, the Argus the other day undertook to trace the drought and the suffering crops to the Republican Administration. Other Democratic journals have directly declared that the sin of the New Orleans duel "must be laid at the door of General Grant." And as if this ridiculous nonsense were not enough for one season, the Argus now openly attempts to convert the amended murder law into a partisan question!—The next step will be to charge the Republican party with the responsibility for the murders that may happen under it.—Albany Journal.

TO THE WEST! TO THE WEST!

Before making your arrangements to follow the advice of the "thousands who have already gone," it would be well to consider what has been done to make the journey to your "Homes in the West" as pleasant and free from danger as human skill and foresight can accomplish.

By consolidation and construction, a road has been put into operation on the shortest possible line from Nashville, Tenn., to St. Louis, "the future great City of the world." This line, the has, during the past year, earned an enviable reputation by its smooth track, prompt time, sure connections, and the magnificence of its passenger equipment. Its trains are made up of new and commodious day cars, provided with the celebrated Miller coupler and platform, and the Westinghouse air-brake.

ST. LOUIS & SOUTHEASTERN RAILWAY,

It is possitively the only line running Pullman Palace Drawing-Room Sleeping Cars through without change from Nashville to St. Louis. No other line pretends to offer such advantages, either in distance, time, or equipment. Why, then, journey by circuitous routes? Do not be induced to purchase tickets to St. Louis or the West by any other line, remember that

The "St. Louis & Southeastern" is the shortest, cheapest, quickest, best and only line under one management from Nashville to St. Louis, and is from 60 to 200 miles the shortest to St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Denver, California, Texas, and all western points. It is also the "Chicago Shortest Line," via Evansville.

You can secure the cheapest rates for yourselves and your movables on application, in person or by letter, to CHARLES MCCABE, Southern Passenger Agent, near College street Depot, Nashville, Tenn, or to the undersigned.

W B DAVENPORT,
General Ticket Agent, St. Louis.

OTTO SCHUTZE,
Observer, U. S A.

A LARGE grey eagle was seen passing over the city yesterday afternoon about five o'clock, heading towards Bald Head.

S. HANSTEIN & Co., New York House, 15 Market street, are offering their entire stock of drygoods, clothing, boots and shoes, at New York cost.

1m

WE know about "that lamp post," and if our cotemporary of the Journal don't smell up we will divulge something that will "put him to the blush" if such a thing could be possible. We are afraid, however, that we would ignominiously fail in attempting it.

THE cheapest stock of drygoods to be found this side of New York is at

S. HANSTEIN & Co.'s
New York House,
1m 15 Market street.

JOHN SCOTT and Nat Filyaw engaged in a little dispute this morning near the Rock Spring, and after swapping complimentary (?) speeches, Scott attempted to chop Filyaw with his "little hatchet," but a policeman appeared and axe-d them both up to interview the Mayor.

THE only chance of getting a suit of clothing, shoes, shirts, &c., at New York cost, is to go to

S. HANSTEIN & Co's.,
New York House,
1m 15 Market street.

SOME person or persons attempted to effect an entrance into the grocery store on the corner of Chesnut and Fifth street on Saturday night. They succeeded in breaking a pannel of the door partially out but it is supposed they were frightened off before they had accomplished their undertakings.

TO MAKE room for a large Fall stock we have reduced our prices, and are now selling our entire stock cheaper than the cheapest.

S. HANSTEIN & Co.,
New York House,
1m 15 Market street.

OBE FULFORD was sent to the work house on the 21st of this month, and not liking his new home, took french leave of it on Saturday night and came to visit his friends in the city. Yesterday afternoon a Knight of the Star picked Obe up and gave him a resting place in the lock up until this morning, when he took a ride with the genial VanAmringe.

IT WAS realy unkind of ye locum tenens of the Journal to make a covered foray upon our active and obliging Harbor Master. He speaks of Capt. Bates having to use "big specs" to see as large a thing as a vessel. The idea of a young man on his first legs having to use "specs" at all and especially large ones. Why the Captain passed our office with his face turned eastward this morning admiring a much smaller and fairer craft than the one that disturbed the tranquil waters of the Cape Fear, on Saturday last.

DULL TIMES.—How many retail dealers are heard to remark, "It is dull times now, but when business is brisk we wish to advertise." If a circus should come to this city next week, and properly advertise, as they know how, they would take away from us four or five thousand dollars in spite of the hard times. But if they failed to advertise, or only put up a few insignificant bills, they would not pay expenses. Dealers should understand this. Though times are dull, people must live, and the house that advertises secures a large portion of the trade. It is a mistaken idea that a man should cease advertising because business is dull. That is just the time he should make strenuous exertions to attract public attention, and work off his summer stock.

An illustration of this occurred the past month in this city at Weill's establishment. He advertises more extensively than usual, and while many stand behind vacant counters, he has done a large business during the past month.

THE TOWN CRIER.

— Mild.

— Gold is 115½.

— Sprinkle the street.

— Vote against the amendments.

— Have you paid your city taxes?

— They poison dogs in New Berne.

— How do you like our new dress to-day?

— The sacrifice of numerous canines has the effect of quieting the midnight hours.

— No use to "kick against the pricks," brother Star, for printers will have a Union—"jes so."

RUNAWAY.—This morning, while the steamer Murchison was blowing off steam, two horses attached to drays became frightened and ran away. One horse was stopped without difficulty, but the other one dashed down Water street, until he crossed Market, where he brought up against the old iron cannon post, which completely demolished the dray. No one was injured, we believe. If we remember aright, there is an ordinance against leaving horses unhitched, and another against drays standing in Water street.

THE CHURCHES yesterday were as well filled as usual at this season of the year, when a large portion of our Church going families are out of the city. The day was a delightful one, though rather warm, as we had a most refreshing breeze from the sea. Rev. Dr. Watson officiated at St. James' morning and evening. Rev. Mr. Hiden preached at the Baptist Church in the morning and at the Presbyterian in the evening. Dr. Burnheim officiated at St. Pauls' Lutheran Church. Rev. Mr. Patterson served at St. John's and a member of St. Pauls' Episcopal read the service in the morning as Rev. Mr. Ambler is still absent. Rev. Father White preached at St. Thomas' Church, and Dr. Moran preached morning and evening at the Front Street Methodist.

Mayor's Court.

His Honor W. P. CANADAY, Mayor, presiding.

J. Brunson, for being drunk and disorderly on the street Saturday night, was fined $10 and costs.

Wm. James, for being drunk and sleeping on the street Sunday, was fined $10 and costs.

Moses Turner, for disorderly conduct, etc., submitted. Judgment suspended on payment of cost.

Polly Gause, Margaret Gause, E. Smell, and Philistine McNeill, for disorderly conduct and fighting on Sunday, were fined $10 and costs each.

John Waddell and George Southerland, for being disorderly and fighting on the street Saturday night, were found guilty.

Mary Murphy, Martha Hill, Chiny McNeill, and Ellen Marshal, charged with disorderly conduct. Case continued until to-morrow.

Margaret Tuny, for failing to obey an officer. Continued until to-morrow.

Martha Hill and Ellen Marshal, failing to appear after giving bond to do so, forfeited the same.

Margaret Tuny also failed to appear, and likewise forfeited her bond.

A person, for selling liquor without a license, was required to pay the cost and comply with the requirements of the law.

A young tornado stirred things around quite lively on Town Fork, in Stokes county, last Friday, by tearing up trees, unroofing houses and frightening the citizens generally.

The Raleigh News says, "it is rather changing the order of things—but we state but the fact. The Housekeeper of the Insane Asylum is a man and the Steward is a woman."

From the Raleigh News we learn that Gov. Caldwell has offered a reward of $300 for the arrest of Louis Ingram, charged with murder, who recently escaped from Buncombe county jail.

The Raleigh News says: "The wages of sin is death" and the wages of a Methodist preacher is "nigh unto it." One of the most distinguished ministers of the Methodist Conference, rode his first circuit in a county where there were over a dozen churches, furnished his own horse, the most of his own board, had fourteen children named after him, and at the end of the year drew his salary of thirteen dollars and twenty-five cents. It was no "poor preach" either. We can prove this by the preacher in question.

When a crowd of jayhawkers started a disturbance in a Texas church, the other day, the preacher raised up a shot gun and said: "William Dello, sit down or I'll make it painful for you." William sat down and was as quiet as a lamb.

An epitaph in a Pennsylvania churchyard: "Here lies the body of Amy Major, who departed this life March 20, 1792. Suffice it to say that she was an honest woman—the second noblest work of God."

Saturday Night Sketches.

"Bonnie new moon,
Bonnie new moon,
Shining above so clearly."

Just a little crescent in the heavens, shedding light so sparingly, but the number of carts had materially increased since our last ramble along the streets. Fifty-one carts, side by side, backed against the curb-stone on one block, and more than forty of them laden with luscious melons. The usual liberal supplies of vegetables of the season were seen, and live chickens innumerable "peeped" out their presence to passers, by hastening their sale and consequent death.—With no thought of the hereafter, only knowing their present uncomfortable position, their murmurings were only the certain signals of speedier doom. Alas, short sighted chickens! But does poor suffering humanity show any more wisdom? We give it up. We didn't come out here to moralize, but to see what was going on in the Saturday night world.

Oh, here they come. A young colored man and his "junsie," walking along hand in hand, enjoying the noise and confusion without hearing it, and the bustling crowds without seeing them. Happy together, all in all to each other, what care they for ill-setting clothes or unfashionable garments? What do they care for the thousand and one bugbears and whims of the world at large? "Alas," exclaimed a white man, as they walked past, "I always thought the colored people had the advantage of us in many particulars. Look at that couple now. When I was a young man, I would have been ashamed to walk along a crowded thoroughfare, hand in hand with my sweetheart, but it doesn't embarrass them a particle." We thought our colored friend, who by the by will probably never know he was observed, rather had the advantage over our white friend this time anyhow.

"Oh, happy state! when souls each other draw,
When Love is liberty, and Nature law:
All then is full, possessing and possess'd,
No craving void left aching in the breast:
Even thought meets thought, ere from the lips it part,
And each warm wish springs natural from the heart."

As we were saying, vegetables were plentiful and cheap, while the thousands of melons found ready sale and at low prices. We never saw a larger attendance, for every one must have his melon for Sunday, and those fortunate enough to be the possessors of equippages rode up to fill their carriages with the luscious food. And so dealers were assailed on all sides, and the little twinkling candle lights in the carts were constantly witnessing the changing of money and the lightening of loads. People must eat, though it is "hard times," and retail traders were all busy. The little black bottles were all brought down to be filled, and the stores all had the usual liquor clerk on duty by the barrels, busily engaged with his tin measures. As we go the busy hours fly by, and at eleven o'clock our outdoor merchants had disappeared. Though they had failed

"To fold their tents like the Arabs,
And as silently steal away," they were certainly gone. A dull quiet had settled upon the streets, a few tears from the hastening clouds closed the incidents of the hour, and the day is done.

MARYLAND.

CUMBERLAND, July 27.

Early this morning engineer Conway, of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, lost control of his engine on the down grade two miles East of Altamont, and 45 miles West of here, when the engine ranaway. When running over 40 miles an hour she struck the rear of a freight train, demolishing twenty cars loaded with corn, cotton and tobacco from the West, scattering the contents of the cars all over the track. Engineer Conway, and men Martin and Elliott, drovers from Barbour and Harrison counties, West Virginia, were killed; T. Burke, conductor, and E. Coonery, brakeman, both of Piedmont, and a drover named Reylands, were badly injured. It is probably the most terrible wreck that has ever occurred on the Baltimore and Ohio Road. The trains were delayed to-day, but are now running as usual.

The death is announced of Frederick Winterhalter, the celebrated histrionic painter. He was born in Baden in 1806, and visited England in 1842, soon obtaining the patronage of the Royal family. As early as 1848 he achieved a distinction which most artists might well envy. His portrait group of the Queen, the late Prince Consort and the royal children, was exhibited by command of the Crown, and was afterwards spread before the eyes of millions in steel engravings. The Queen gave Winterhalter many orders. He painted Wellington and Peel in 1850, various portraits of Queen Victoria, besides other notable works representing the royal family.

That the British soldier is well fed is abundantly evident from the dietary, which gives six pounds eight ounces of solids and liquids daily as the regulation allowance for each man.

An Illinois man has had an experimental proof that action and reaction are equal. He was partially paralyzed by sun-stroke, but a lively shaking up by fever and ague set him all right.

Important to Voters.

The Raleigh News publishes the following instructions which should be carefully heeded. It comes to us in an official shape, being signed by the Chairman of the several State Committees, and should be cut out for future reference:

RALEIGH, N. C., July 22d, 1873.

The undersigned, in reply to inquiries made from different parts of the State as to what are the requisites in submitting the constitutional amendments to the people will state:

1st. The Sheriff in every county in the State shall open the polls at the several election precincts in his county on the first Thursday in August next, and the same shall be kept open one day, from the hour of 8 A. M., until the hour of 7 P. M., when every person qualified to vote according to the constitution may vote for or against each amendment on a written or printed ticket.

2nd. The County Commissioners, or upon their failure, the inspectors of election shall provide for each election precinct—eight ballot boxes, one for each amendment to be voted on.

Each of said boxes shall have attached thereto a written or printed label, designating the amendments to be voted on therein, and after the close of the election the judge shall count out separately the number of votes cast, for and against the amendment.

(See chap. 153, acts 1872-'73.)

We would suggest the following as the form of one of the tickets:

Amendment to N. C. Constitution in relation to Public Debt (chap. 85, acts 1872-'73).

For amendment—(or when so desired, say) against amendment.

Of course each ticket must be prepared to suit each amendment of which there are eight.

Prospectus for 1873.

SIXTH YEAR.

THE ALDINE,

An illustrated monthly journal, universally admitted to be the handsomest periodical in the world. A representative and champion of American taste.

NOT FOR SALE IN BOOK OR NEWS STORES.

THE ALDINE, WHILE ISSUED WITH all the regularity, has none of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light and graceful literature, and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness, as compared with rivals of a similar class, THE ALDINE is a unique and original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The possessor of a complete volume cannot duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any shape or number of volumes, for ten times its cost, and then there are the chromos besides!

ART DEPARTMENT.

Notwithstanding the increase in the price of subscription last fall, when THE ALDINE assumed its present noble proportions and representative character, the edition was more than doubled during the past year, proving that the American public appreciate, and will support, a sincere effort in the cause of Art. The publishers, anxious to justify the ready confidence thus demonstrated, have exerted themselves to the utmost to develop and improve the work; and the plans for the coming year, as unfolded by the monthly issues, will astonish and delight even the most sanguine friends of THE ALDINE.

The publishers are authorized to announce designs from many of the most eminent artists of America.

In addition THE ALDINE will reproduce examples of the best foreign masters, selected with a view to the highest artistic success and greatest general interest, avoiding such as have become familiar through photographs, or copies of any kind.

The quarterly tinted plates, for 1873, will reproduce four of John S. Davis' inimitable child-sketches; appropriate to four seasons. These plates, appearing in the issues for January, April, July and October, would be alone worth the price of a year's subscription.

The popular feature of a copiously-illustrated "Christmas" number will be continued.

To possess such a valuable epitome of the art world, at a cost so trifling, will command the subscriptions of thousands in every section of the country, but as the usefulness and attractions of THE ALDINE can be enhanced, in proportion to the numerical increase of its supporters, the publishers propose to make "assurance doubly sure" by the following unparalleled offer of

PREMIUM CHROMOS FOR 1873:

Every subscriber to THE ALDINE, who pays in advance for the year 1873, will receive without additional charge a pair of beautiful oil chromos, after J. J. Hill, the eminent English painter. The pictures entitled "The Village Belle" and "Crossing the Moor" are 14x30 inches—are printed from 25 different plates, requiring 25 impressions and tints to perfect each picture. The same chromos are sold for $30 per pair in the art stores. As it is the determination of the conductors to keep THE ALDINE out of the reach of competition in every department, the chromos will be found correspondingly ahead of any that can be offered by other periodicals. Every subscriber will receive a certificate, over the signature of the publishers, guaranteeing that the chromos delivered shall be equal to the samples furnished the agent, or the money will be refunded. The distribution of this grade, free to the subscribers of a $5 periodical, will mark an epoch in the history of art, and considering the unprecedented cheapness of the price for THE ALDINE itself, the marvel falls little short of a miracle, even to those best acquainted with the achievements of inventive genius and improved mechanical appliances. (For illustrations of these chromos see Nov. issue of THE ALDINE.

THE LITERARY DEPARTMENT

will continue under the care of Mr. Richard Henry Stoddard, assisted by by the best writers and poets of the day, who will strive to have the literature of THE ALDINE always in keeping with its artistic attractions.

TERMS:

FIVE DOLLARS per annum, in advance, with oil-chromos free.

THE ALDINE will hereafter be obtainable only by subscription. There will be no reduced or club rate; cash for subscription must be sent to the publishers direct, or handed to the local agent, without responsibility to the publishers, except in cases where the certificate is given, bearing the fact-simile signature of Jas. Sutton & Co.

AS A FAMILY PAPER,
The TIMES will have no superior; it will be free from all appeals to vulgar and impure tastes, and may be safely admitted to every domestic circle.

AS A REPUBLICAN JOURNAL,
The TIMES will be devoted, as in the past, to an intelligent and firm support of the Republican Party. Its course in reference to the Tammany Ring, at a time when all the other daily papers in New York obstructed and discouraged its efforts, attests its sincerity in the cause of Reform. The TIMES stood alone in demanding Reform from 1869 to the close of 1871, and there is no sincere and honest proposal for Reform, in any branch of the Government, which will not be heartily supported by the TIMES. But it will not conspire in assisting ambitious politicians or demagogues to reach power under false pretenses. It will not encourage defection from the Republican Party, which is still the party of progress, security and national prosperity.

It will sustain, with all the force and influence at its command, the principles and policy which have rendered that party so justly famous in our history. It will advocate those measures by which the honor, the peace, and the prosperity of the nation can be best secured and promoted, and will constantly study the wants of the people rather than the wishes of the politicians.

THE NEW YORK SEMI-WEEKLY TIMES
Is published every Tuesday and Friday, and contains all the agricultural and literary matter of the Weekly edition, and a full and careful compilation of editorial and news features of the Daily.

Terms of the Semi-Weekly TIMES: One copy, one year, $3; two copies, one year, $5; ten copies, one year, $25—and one extra copy free.

These prices are invariable. Remit in drafts on New York or Post-office Money Orders, if possible, and where neither of these can be procured, send the money in a registered letter. C. P. Knight, Esq.—Dear Sir: I have used Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint on my dwelling last Spring, and am much pleased with it, and it looks as well now as when first painted, and consider it a good Paint. Yours, truly,
Creswell P. O., Hartford county, Md., Feb. 6th, 1873. A. H. STRASBAUGH.

THE PLAINS, FAUQUIER CO., VA., Feb. 6th, 1873.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Sir: The Paint came safely to hand as ordered—two kegs, five gallons each, and three buckets, one gallon each. As practice was slack, I did the job myself. Two weeks, (not constant work,) completed the house two coats. The last coat I applied thick, and it is now generally conceded that for enamel-like hardness, and body, and harmony of colors, there is not a handsomer job in the place. I saved sixty-five dollars by the operation, which is an item just now with Southern people. It should be generally adopted in this State. Any country lad can apply it. I have never dabbled in such stock as testimonials, but I feel so forcibly the great adaptability of your "Enamel Paint" to the wants of our people, in excellency of material, in beauty of color, and in the fact of its being "ready mixed" that I give you free permission, (if it is desirable to you,) to make what use you think proper of this letter.
Very respectfully and truly,
S. McGILL, M. D.

TO THE PUBLIC—It affords me much pleasure to state that in July, 1871, Front Street Theatre was painted inside and out with "Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint," for which C. P. Knight, No. 93 West Lombard Street, is agent, and, to testify to its superiority over any and all other paints for similar uses. In no private dwelling can paint possibly be subjected to the very severe test it undergoes at this establishment, where, during our daily cleaning, soap and soda are constantly applied to it, and yet it appears as sound and fresh as when put on. Of the numerous advantages it possesses over other paints, I will only mention its being mixed and ready for use in quantities to suit purchasers, its quickly drying properties, which saves much time in the execution of work were paint is needed, and its very perceptible tenacity, which imparts beauty and durability to the objects on which it is used. As such I most earnestly recommend it to the merchants and tradesmen of our city, believing it will give them greater satisfaction than they can possibly anticipate.
WM. E. SINN,
Front Street Theatre.

CHAMBERSBURG, December 10th, 1872.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir:—The paints we received from you have been applied to several of our own buildings and to those of our friends, and have given entire satisfaction in covering qualities, in gloss, and in adaptability to all kinds of surface of material and we cheerfully recommend it, especially to that class of consumers who have to depend upon unknown parties, or painters to mix and furnish materials, wherein we have found the most deception.
Yours, truly,
JACOB STOUFFER & SON.

FROM HON. JOHN WETHERED.

Mr. C. P. Knight:—At the recommendation of a friend, I was induced to apply your patent "Bradley's" paint to my house. I have pleasure in stating that it has proved highly satisfactory, covering more surface than you promised, is more economical, carries better gloss than ordinary paint, and is freer from disagreeable odor.
Yours, Respectfully, JOHN WETHERED.

BALTIMORE, December 27th, 1871.

C. P. Knight, Esq., Agent for Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint—Dear Sir:—The paint we purchased from you we will cheefully endorse as the best of any kind we have ever used; its covering qualities is everything desired, drying promptly and with a hard gloss which must, we think, resist the action of all kinds of weather. This is our experience, and we can recommend it with certainty, and intend to use it on all occasions where we desire a good job of work.
Very Respectfully, EMART & QUARTLEY, 270 W. Baltimore St.
House, Sign and Frescoe Painters.

Very Respetfully, R. DICKEY, M. D.

"Unquestionably the best sustained work of the kind in the World."

Harper's Magazine.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

The ever-increasing circulation of this excellent monthly, proves its continued adaptation to popular desires and needs.—Indeed, when we think into how many homes it penetrates every month, we must consider it as one of the educators as well as entertainers of the public mind, for its vast popularity has been won by no appeal to stupid prejudices or depraved tastes.—Boston Globe.

The character which this Magazine possesses for variety, enterprise, artistic wealth and literary culture that has kept pace with, if it has not led the times, should cause its conductors to regard it with justifiable complacency. It also entitles them to a great claim upon the public gratitude. The Magazine has done good and not evil all the days of its life.—Brooklyn Eagle.
